

TCDD Members empowered to hold duty bearers accountable through poverty monitoring, advocacy and public expenditure tracking to ensure government policies and resources have trickle down effective to marginalized and poor people. The Process seeks to supporting TCDD members and poor people to monitor implementation of poverty programmes, and demand accountability and generating critical information. Through participatory monitoring poverty approach on public policies, the impact will develop and disseminate information to influence policy changes.